This order governs the filing of documents by email only in protection from abuse and protection from harassment cases. The filing of documents by email in civil, criminal, juvenile, family matter, and appellate cases shall be governed by PMO-SJC-3.

PMO-SJC-3A(A). DOCUMENTS THAT CAN BE FILED BY EMAIL

1. Complaints for protection from harassment that require a filing fee;
2. Post-judgment motions to extend, to modify, or for contempt in protection from harassment orders that require a filing fee (even if the party requests that the filing fee be waived);¹ and
3. Trial exhibits for remote hearings, which shall be filed as required by PPMO-SJC-2.

PMO-SJC-3A(B). FILING DATE AND DOCKETING OF DOCUMENTS THAT ARE FILED BY EMAIL

The filing date will be the business day the document is submitted. A day begins at 12:00:00 a.m. and ends at 11:59:59 p.m. in the time zone where the courthouse is located. If a document is submitted on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the filing date will be the next business day.

Complaints and motions to extend will be docketed the same day they are submitted by email provided they are filed before 3:00 p.m. on a business day. If they are submitted by email on a weekend, a legal holiday, or after 3:00 p.m. on a business day, they will be docketed the next business day.

It may take up to two business days for all other documents to be docketed, and all filers should expect that delay. Even when there is a delay in docketing, the filing date will be the date of submission.

PMO-SJC-3A(C). FORMAT OF DOCUMENTS THAT ARE FILED BY EMAIL

Attorneys and parties may submit documents by email for filing in Word, PDF, or other common document formats. Proposed orders, however, must be sent in Word format or a fillable PDF. All documents, including proposed orders, must be sent to the correct email address, as provided in the appendix attached to this order.² Note that the type of document to be filed will determine which address will be used for each court.

PMO-SJC-3A(D). ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE AND NOTARIZATION

1. Any document filed by email must contain an electronic signature. An electronic signature is the paperless equivalent of signing one's name on a piece of paper. In order to comply with PMO-SJC-2(G), each electronic signature on a document filed by email must
 - a. Be the electronic signature of the attorney or party filing the document; and
 - b. Take the form of either a "facsimile signature," defined as a captured image incorporated into the document, or a "typographical signature," defined as a signature block with the name of the signatory typed on the signature line preceded by "/s/".

² These email addresses are for the sole purpose of submitting documents for filing and may not be used for other types of communication with the clerks, judges, or other Judicial Branch personnel.

The electronic signature shall have the same force and effect as if the attorney or party had signed a paper copy of the document.

2. A party may file by email a document without notarization provided that, in place of a notarized signature, the party affixes the party's typographical or facsimile signature immediately below a declaration that states the following:

I swear under penalty of perjury that the above statements are true and correct. I understand that these statements are made for use as evidence in court and that I am subject to prosecution for perjury punishable by up to 5 years in prison and a fine of up to $5,000.00 if I give false information to the court.

This declaration is included on the Complaint for Protection from Abuse (PA-001), Complaint for Protection from Harassment (PA-006), Motion to Extend (PA-013), and on the Cover Sheet for Email Filing (PA-030) that is required to be submitted with all emailed filings under section E(2).

PMO-SJC-3A(E). EMAIL SUBJECT LINE AND COVER SHEETS FOR DOCUMENTS THAT ARE FILED BY EMAIL

1. Each document filed by email after the complaint must list the docket number of the case and must be filed with a subject line that lists the docket number. If there is no docket number, the filing party must list the names of the parties in the subject line (for example, "Jane Doe v. John Doe").
2. All documents filed by email, including initial complaints and motions to extend, must be accompanied by the Cover Sheet for Email Filing (PA-030) that includes the following information concerning the attorney or party:
 - a. Printed name;
 - b. Address;

- c. Telephone number;
- d. Email address; and
- e. If the signer is an attorney, the name of that attorney's law firm and the attorney's Maine Bar number.

If the filing party has completed an Affidavit for Confidential Address (PA-015), the filing party does not need to complete the Cover Sheet for Email Filing (PA-030), and can instead write "confidential address" in the email that accompanies the emailed document.

PMO-SJC-3A(F). PAPER ORIGINALS FOR THE COURT WHEN DOCUMENTS ARE FILED BY EMAIL

No paper original of any document filed by email is to be mailed or delivered to the court.

PMO-SJC-3A(G). JUDICIAL REVIEW OF COMPLAINTS AND MOTIONS TO EXTEND THAT ARE FILED BY EMAIL

Complaints for protection from abuse, complaints for protection from harassment that do not require a filing fee,³ and motions to extend protection orders that do not require a filing fee that are filed by email before 3:00 p.m. on a business day will be presented to a judicial officer for review and determination the same day they are submitted. If they are submitted by email on a weekend, legal holiday, or after 3:00 p.m. on a business day, they will not be reviewed until the next available business day.

If a plaintiff is emailing a complaint for protection from abuse or a complaint of protection from harassment, or a motion to extend a protection order, the plaintiff must file PA-027 and follow the instructions on that form.

³ Complaints for protection from harassment that involve allegations of domestic violence, stalking, sexual assault, sex trafficking, or unauthorized dissemination of certain private images do not require a filing fee.

PMO-SJC-3A(H). SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS THAT ARE FILED BY EMAIL

1. Complaints and Motions to Extend that Are Filed by Email

The court will arrange for the service by law enforcement of complaints for protection from abuse, motions to extend protection from abuse orders, complaints for protection from harassment that do not require a filing fee, and motions to extend protection from harassment orders that do not require a filing fee that are filed by email.

a. Service on the Opposing Party

- i. When a document is filed in a case in which both parties are represented by counsel, the filing party shall always copy opposing counsel on the email to the court. Copying opposing counsel on the email to the court qualifies as service for purposes of this Order.
- ii. If only one party is represented by counsel, the filing party shall send a copy of the filed document to the opposing party by mail.
- iii. If neither party is represented, the filing party shall not copy the opposing party on the email, and instead the court shall mail a copy of the filed document to the opposing party.

b. Response Deadlines

Response deadlines will be controlled by the applicable rules of civil procedure and statutory provisions, except, while this Order is in effect, the response period for a motion to continue will be 3 days from the date of filing.
