

STATE OF MAINE

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT
Sitting as the Law Court
Docket No. BCD-21-416

Avangrid Networks, Inc., et al.

v.

PROCEDURAL ORDER

Bureau of Parks and Lands et al.

The Business and Consumer Docket (BCD) has reported a question to this Court pursuant to M.R. App. P. 24(c).

It is ORDERED as follows:

1. As the parties aggrieved by the reported interlocutory ruling, plaintiffs Avangrid Networks, Inc., and NECEC Transmission LLC are deemed to be appellants and shall pay the appeal fee of $175 to the BCD on or before January 12, 2022. See M.R. App. P. 24(d).
2. Any party may, on or before January 12, 2022, order a transcript of any proceeding in this matter.
3. The Clerk of the Law Court is directed to issue a briefing schedule as though the record became complete on the date of this order, regardless of whether any party orders a transcript. The Court will entertain a motion to enlarge the briefing schedule if a party orders a transcript and there is a significant delay in the production of the transcript.

4. Each other party in the trial court, including each intervenor, may proceed as either an appellant or an appellee. Any party who seeks a change in the trial court's order must proceed as an appellant, and any party who supports the trial court's order must proceed as an appellee.
5. To avoid unnecessary duplication of effort and argument, parties whose interests are closely aligned are encouraged to file joint briefs.
6. Any interested person, entity, or organization may file an amicus brief without the consent of the parties or separate leave of the Court.
7. If Attorney Robert Cheverie, who was permitted to practice in the BCD as a visiting attorney, wishes to practice in this appeal as a visiting attorney, a member of the Maine bar who is actively associated with Attorney Cheverie must make a motion in this Court pursuant to M.R. Civ. P. 89(b).
