BRIEFING SCHEDULE

Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife

To: Parties: Appellant: Andrew Arthur Schmidt Esq., ANDREW SCHMIDT LAW PLLC 97 INDIA ST, PORTLAND ME 0410
Appellee: Paul E. Suttter Esq., Six State House Station , Augusta ME 04333

This Notice Contains Important Information About Your Appeal. Read It Carefully.

The record in this appeal became complete on January 19, 2023, following (1) the filing of the original record and (2) the filing of transcript of the trial court proceedings if a transcript was ordered and timely paid for, the cancellation of the transcript order, the filing of a statement in lieu of a transcript, or the expiration of the time to file a proposed statement in lieu of a transcript. See M.R. App. 7(a).

This appeal is governed by the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

All filings with the Court must be mailed to, or made in person at, the Maine Supreme Judicial Court, 205 Newbury St. Rm. 139, Portland ME 04101.

The parties are required to file, in addition to the required paper copies, an electronic copy of each brief. Email a single .pdf file to lawcourt.clerk@courts.maine.gov (see M.R. App. P. 7A(i)(2)).

The briefs and appendix are due as follows, M.R. App. P. 7(b):

- The appellant's brief must be filed on or before March 16, 2023.
- The appendix must be filed on or before March 16, 2023.
- The appellee's brief must be filed on or before May 4, 2023.
- The appellant may file a reply brief, strictly confined to new matter raised by the appellee's brief, on or before 21 days after the last appellee's brief is filed.

Because of the extended time for filing briefs and the appendix, no extensions of time will be granted except as permitted by M.R. App. P. 7(b)(3).

Enclosed with this notice is a paper highlighting appeal document preparation and filing requirements. Failure to follow those requirements and the requirements of the Maine Rules of Appellate Procedure may result in dismissal of the appeal, return of documents for revision, or another sanction that may adversely affect a party's position on appeal.

Dated: January 19, 2023

Matthew Pollack
Clerk of the Law Court
