CIVIL ACTION

ORDER

SECRETARY OF STATE, et al.

The Maine Supreme Judicial Court has vacated the Superior Court's August 24, 2020 Order reversing the Secretary of State's determination that 988 signatures were invalid. Jones v. Secretary of State, 2020 ME 113 ¶ 35. The Maine Supreme Judicial Court issued instructions to the Superior Court to affirm the Secretary of State's determinations that the 988 signatures contested on appeal to the Court are invalid and that therefore an inadequate number of signatures had been submitted to place the people's veto on the ballot.

Pursuant to the Court's instructions, the Secretary of State's decision is AFFIRMED.

This Order is incorporated on the docket by reference pursuant to M.R.Civ.P. 79(a).
